BUSTIN' LOOSE

Volume 10
Published by

Beebe, Arkansas 72012

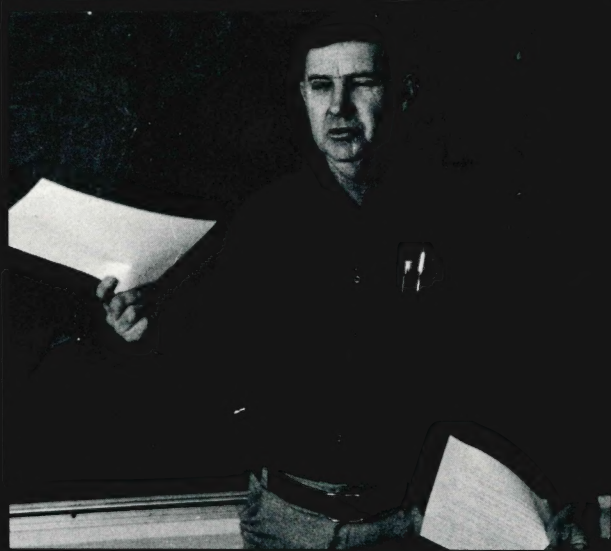

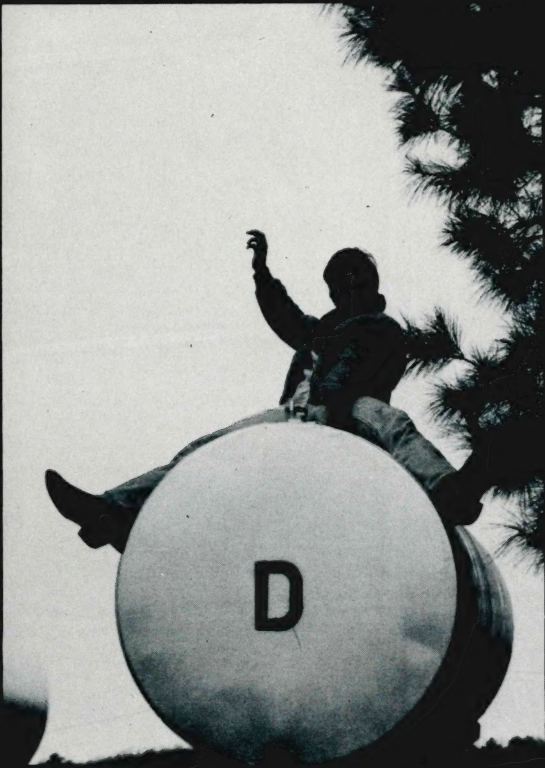

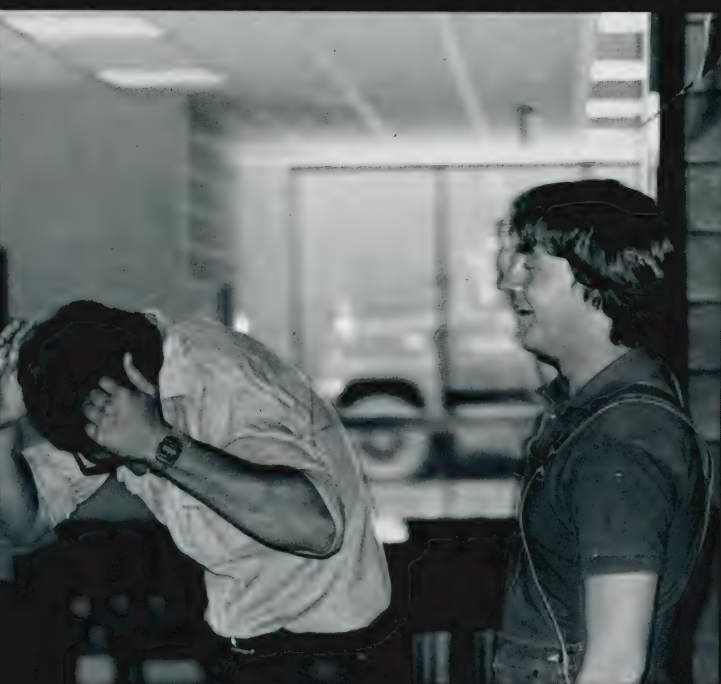

Poised. Beneath that cool, placid exterior lurks a coiled spring . . . a cobra ready to strike . . . a bowstring stretched so far the archer's arm is trembling.

y. Maybe everything has gone wrong it's just plain boredom . . . but there's ing on your mind . . .

BUSTIN' LOOSE!

ef is just a minute away. Letting off steam . . .
's what it's about. Just as a boiler has to release a e steam so that it won't explode. Bustin' loose.

Congratulations

Vic Wright

Congratulations
Victor Wright!

We've come a long way.

Our nursing and health services have covered a lot of ground since we started 100 years ago. We began by caring for the wounded on the battlefield. Later, we called on the ill at home. Then, as we trained and recruited more nurses, we began to develop programs to teach people how to help themselves and their families.

Today, we give instruction in home nursing, disease prevention, parenting, child care, nutrition, managing stress, preparation for disaster, health maintenance—all of this in addition to providing services to the community on an as-needed basis.

But we're not saying this to pat ourselves on the back. We just want you to know that if you need help, we're ready.

Red Cross: Ready for a new century.

Closing

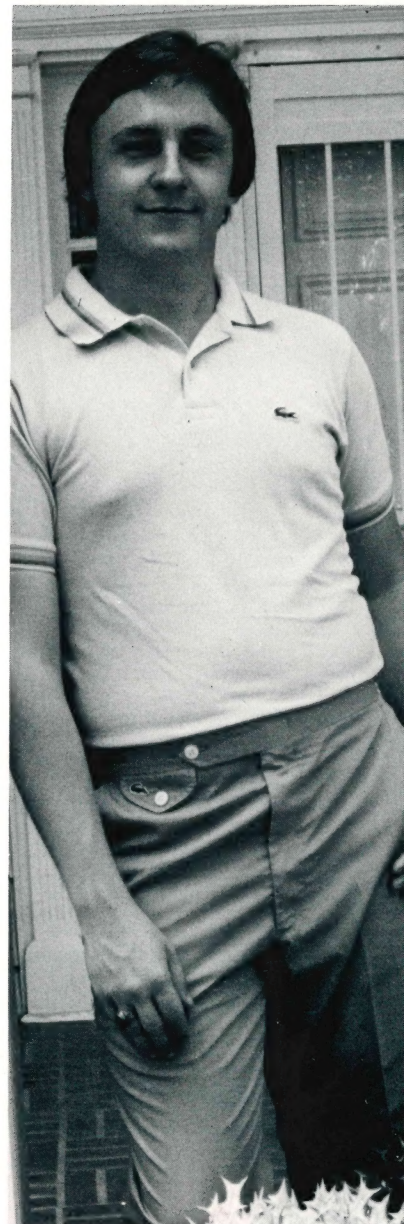

As a member of the staff of the 1981 Warrior, I would like to express my deepest gratitude of the faculty, administration, and student body of ASU-Beebe for their cooperation in the compiling of the book. To Mr. Chapel go my special thanks. His patient guidance and his knowledge of the making of a yearbook were essential to the quality of this volume.

In all things, the members must work together in order to achieve a common goal. This principle has been demonstrated to me by the staff of the 1981 Warrior. I thank each person for his help and hope the satisfaction of this completed annual has been a great reward to them as it has to me.

As you have looked through these pages I hope that you have recalled moments of success, defeat, happiness, sadness, learning, living, fun, excitement, the possible and the impossible.

As time and our lives move on I hope this book will retrieve some of our memories and feelings and bring enjoyment to everyone.
